Friday VINITA, OKLA. November 2

Lee Cruse and Mr. Witherall did not make anything by coming here and telling the people that the Republicans were in favor of building up manufacturing institutions while the Democrats were in favor of building up schools. Now be honest, just for a minute. Look the situation squarely in the face and see if the record is not against the Democrats on both propositions. Why, God bless you, the Republicans favor a protective tariff which builds up a country, and they are also in favor of good public schools and sufficiently paid teachers. Statistics show that Republican states pay about ten times more money for public schools than the Democratic states. Vinita is an example of what Democrats are in favor of on the school question. Rogers favors a high school for Vinita.

Mr. Kornegay fought the high school proposition in Vinita last spring, because he feared the adoption of better educational facilities would advance the taxation his large property interests. Rogers is in favor of a high school in Vinita.

Democrats pay no attention to such small matters of blocks of 10 and blocks of five. They are organized in groups of 50, one in a block.

When Ames gets out in the country he scores Hitchcock. Mr. Montgomery says he did not talk about anything else but Hitchcock at the Union school house. And the same gentleman says that Mr. Frear said that all Republicans from President Roosevelt down to Judge Gill were robbers and grafters. Today an Osage Indian is worth ten times more in dollars and cents and landed estates. What's the difference? The Interior department and Hitchcock governed the Osages and the Cherokees governed themselves and plundered their own people. Who is the real robber, please? The only public official who ever gave the Osages the worst end of the deal was Hoke Smith, Democratic secretary of the Interior under Grover Cleveland's last administration, when he leased their lands by the wholesale to oil companies.

Last night at the court house Bird S. McGuire said that Charles B. Rogers, Republican nominee for Delegate to the Constitutional convention worked night and day in Washington last winter for the best interests of Vinita and accomplished his mission, that of securing the selection of Vinita as a federal court town after it had been left out of the statehood bill, and that the city of Vinita owed a debt of gratitude to Mr. Rogers.

Our Democratic friends started out with a brave front. They were just going to take things by storm. A great change has taken place. Their time is now taken up in denying and correcting and mollifying former statements. Things have gotten to such a point that the speaker has to be accompanied by some one to substantiate the speakers denials. How the mighty have fallen.

Charles B. Rogers' position on the public school question is gaining votes for him every day. The people in the country are in favor of better educational facilities than they now have and they have made up their minds that the only way in which they can expect to secure the right kind of a school law is to elect Mr. Rogers as delegate to the constitutional convention.

Charles B. Rogers made a lucky strike when he announced that he was in favor of an improved condition of the public schools and in favor of a high school wherever one is needed. Mr. Kornegay's position against a high school in Vinita, a city with a population of 4000 is losing him votes every day.

MAKERS

AMONG the advantages we offer young men who come to us for their clothes is the assurance that we can guarantee them better fit and more style.

In different parts of the country young men of the same age vary strikingly in their average measurements.

It is not every manufacturer nor every retail store that takes these facts into consideration. We do, and the manufacturers who produce our clothing likewise do; therefore our stock has been made to our order and with reference to the requirements of the young men of this climate and section of the country.

We have your particular size and the overcoat and suit that will exactly fit you and look best on you. In every respect we guarantee you complete satisfaction.

VANITY

From time immemorial moralists have railed at the vanity of woman. Here is a woman, and a beautiful one at that, who says that vanity is an imperishable instinct; that vanity, like love, is one of the great forces that makes the world go round; that to be vain is a duty to humanity and an essential of success.

It's an original view; what is your opinion?
This defense of an old time sin is set forth in our new magazine—
